Bugs, Fleas, Moths, Beetles
And all other insects are destroyed by Keating's Insect Powder,
Which is quite harmless to Domestic Animals.
In exterminating Beetles the success of this powder is extraordinary, and no one need be troubled by those pests. It is perfectly clean in application.
Ask for and be sure to obtain KEATING'S POWDER, as Imitations are Noxious, and fail in giving satisfaction.
Sold by all Chemists in Tins and small Bottles.

KEATING'S
Bon Bons or Worm Tablets.
A PURELY VEGETABLE SWEETMEAT both in appearance and taste, furnishing a most agreeable method of administering the only certain remedy for INTESTINAL or THREAD WORMS. It is a perfectly safe and mild preparation, and is especially adapted for Children.
TESTIMONIAL.
Mr Keating, Medical Hall, Gildersome, Nov. 28th 1876
Dear Sir
I think it nothing but my duty to inform you of the immense sale I have for your Worm Tablets, which I may justly say is enormous, and in every case gives the greatest satisfaction. I have now in stock two bottles containing the Round Worm brought me during the last few days by customers, one Worm 40 yards long. I dare not be without the remedy.
Yours respectfully

Pildoras Holloway
Las virtudes de esta admirable medicina son especialmente eficaces para expulsar de la Sangre toda impureza. En los casos de debilidad, ella es incomparable, al paso que cura radicalmente las Indigestiones, y los desordenes generales del Hijado, del Estomago, y de los intestinos, restableciendose, como por encanto, el vigor y la salud normal, dichas Pildoras remueven asimismo las dolencias que suelen affijir a las Mugeres al llegar estas a la edad critica.

Unguento Holloway
Este incomparable Balsamo sana los Males de Piernas y de Pecho, las Llagas Antiguas, y aun esas Ulceras cuyo orijen no conviene mencionar en un anuncio publico. Para todas las Erupciones cutaneas no hay remedio igual al Unguento Holloway, al que millares deben la salvacion tanto de sus Brazos y Piernas como de su existencia.
Antes de comprar, examinese con mucha cautela el Rotulo en el Bote o la Caja, para cerciorarse si esta la direccion de 533, Oxford Street, London, pues si no esta, entonces se trata de perpetrar un descarado engaño.
Se envian al as personas que sean defraudadas por los vendedores que expenden 'Las Pildoras y el Unguento de Holloway' falsificados para que se sirvan al comunicarme los pormenores, e inmediatamente hare formalizar procesos legales contra los Ofensores, y recompensare liberalmente a los Delatores por el trabaja que se tomen, comprometiendome a que no haya trascendencia de sus nombres.

FLUIDO LITTLE
(THE LITTLE DIP)
Especifico para
CURAR LA SARNA EN LAS OVEJAS,
El mas eficaz
El mas barato
El mas facil de aplicar
De todos los Antisarnicos hasta ahora conocidos.
ESTE ESPECIFICO es libre de veneno y se disuelve al momento y enteramente en agua fria; puede ser empleado en cualquier estacion del ano. Ha alcanzado ya tal fama en esta Provincia que es casi el unico remedio empleado en los partidos de Chivilcoy, Mercedes, 25 de Mayo, Chacabuco, etc. Viene en tambores y cascos y se usa mezclado con 100 partes de agua.
TODAS LAS PERSONAS que han usado el Fluido Little estan contentisimas con el, como se vera por las cartas recibidas por los Agentes de los Sres. E. Casey, Eugenio Keenan, John O'Connor, John J. Gahan, George H. Scott, Michael J. Kearney, Luke Rooney, John Brown, E. Garrahan, Henry Saint John Foresman, Alejandro J. Garcia, Benito Crisol, etc.
EL PROFESOR KYLE en una carta fecha 17 de Febrero ppdo. dice—'Juzgandolo de un punto de vista quimico, con la mayor confianza puedo recomendar a los Estancieros el Antisarnico Little, y no tengo la menor duda que dentro de poco sera el favorito para la cura de la sarna, etc.

Muy importante para el Publico.
Poseido de la mayor ansiedad, y con el debido respecto al Publico, apelo muy encarecidamente a toda clase de personas, para que se dignen prestarme su apoyo, dando a conocer como tales las malas y aun peligrosas falsificaciones de mis medicinas, hechas principalmente en Nueva York, de que tengan conocimiento.
Especuladores nada escrupulosos adquieren esta droga a un precio sumamente bajo, y la venden como si fuera mis genuinas pildoras y ungüento, logrando con este reprobado trafico una enorme ganancia.
Ninguno de los expresados medicamentos son genuinos, si no llevan en el rotulo de cada bote y caja la inscripcion siguiente: Holloway's Pills and Ointment, 533, Oxford Street, London, y el sello del Gobierno Britanico, con las palabras Holloway's Pills and Ointment, grabadas en el.
Las personas que tengan la bondad de informar de algun traficante que venda las enunciadas medicinas falsas, seran muy bien remuneradas, y nunca, ni en circumstancia alguna, se publicaran sus nombres.

Carlow Lay College
AND
ST. MARY'S PREPARATORY SCHOOL
Knockbeg, Queen's County.

In Carlow Lay College students are prepared for the Army, for the various professions, and for Degrees in Arts in the University of London.
Amongst Catholic Colleges, Carlow ranks next to Ushaw and Stoneyhurst in the number of her students who are graduates and undergraduates of the London University. An Examiner from the University of London holds Examinations in Carlow College, to confer Degrees in Arts.
There is a special class under a competent master to prepare students for commercial life, and no exertion is spared to secure the progress of the pupils in the junior classes.
The College is healthfully situated in a park of six acres, which forms extensive recreation grounds for the students.
TERMS :—
Pension, including all extras, 35 guineas per annum.
Pension, exclusive of extras, 30 guineas.
St. Mary's Preparatory School
In connection with Carlow Lay College, the Preparatory School of St. Mary's, for Children from eight to twelve years of age, has been re-opened.
Rector—Rev. William P Bourke.
Matron and Professor of French and Music—Miss Finneran.
English Master—Mr P Harnett.
The School is strictly and purposely limited to children of such age, in order that they may be totally separated from the grown boys, and may have all the advantages of minute attention which their tender years require.
The children at St. Mary's are under the special care of the matron, and the rector takes charge of their religious instruction.

CENTRAL OFFICE

With Branch Offices in Europe and in the Provinces, and in all the most important departments of same, for the purpose of facilitating the purchase and sale of Government and private lands either for pasturage or agriculture.

They have collected together for this purpose all the requisite registers and maps so that the exact whereabouts and extent of these lands can be studied, and have completed a special one of the province of Buenos Aires in which all the late sales and their sites are detailed. They also have copies of plans of National lands sold and for sale, both within and outside the exterior frontier line of the provinces of Buenos Aires, Santa Fe, and Cordova.

A thorough knowledge of the laws that govern the matter, and of the quality of the lands, is the best guarantee they can offer their customers.

They will take charge of the purchase or sale of large or small areas of land, and fraction them into suitable lots for colonists.

For this purpose they have special agents in Europe who will send out emigrants with means.

Special Telegrams

London, April 10

Final result of elections a majority of 60 for the Liberals.

THE ELECTIONS.

Three months ago the conviction was general that the elections of Sunday would cause a political earthquake in this country; they are now over, and from what we saw in this city and learned by telegram, we believe they have been a model of order and quietness, and will contrast most favourably with the news to be received by next mail of the general elections in the United Kingdom. At Arrecites and Moron, at Mercedes, Lujan, San Antonio de Areco, Dolores, Tandil, and, in fact, all our country towns, there was not a particle of that excitement which occurred the other day in Liverpool. Neither party bought up all the cabs and left the unfortunate voters on foot; there was not an attempt even to get up the horses to prevent the gauchos from voting; and people who read the papers every morning for the last three months were both humiliated and astonished to think that their judgment had been so tampered with by the nonsense and trash of the political writers who predicated revolution, ruin and revolt on the 11th April 1880.

The quietness that ruled in town was something very remarkable: even at the Balvanera, which in former years was the scene of such great scandals, and on Sunday was so quiet that people that knew this parish asked what had become of the electors. At noon the voting was 311 for Tejedor, against 1 for Irigoyen. At San Cristobal it was 314 for Tejedor, against 31 for Roca; at San Miguel it ran 102 for the Governor, against nothing. At Concepcion it was 310, against 20 for Sarmiento; at the Catedral al Sud, where there are 700 voters registered only 150 voted, and all for the Governor; at San Nicolas there was some slight show of an opposition, and the figures ran 200 for the Governor agains 60 for Roca.

It is hardly to be supposed that in such a great walk over we need go through the telegrams from all the country towns, every message being almost alike; even in Ayacucho Mr. Benito Machado telegraphs that everything went on well without the least opposition. The only lesson to be derived from these elections, and it is a useful one, is, that revolution in this country exists in the newspapers and not in the people, and that our papers serve as a species of safety-valve that costs us a paper dollar a day and rescues us from troubles which in other countries prove so disastrous. No man who has walked down Calle Rivadavia this morning can tell which side has won—whether Tories or Liberals. We all know that Tejedor has made a clean sweep in this province; but is Tejedor a Tory, a Liberal, or a Home Ruler? The plain fact of the matter is that the issue of our elections, dub them with all the importance we may in our newspapers, never strikes at the price of bread, or meat, or beer, or whisky. Our breakfast costs us the same to-day, whether the whole town votes for Tejedor or not; and not all the newspapers in the Republic can persuade the people that the election of Tejedor, Roca, Sarmiento, or Irigoyen can improve the comestible market or reduce the price of bread.

The example which we have set to the rest of South America, by the force and order of these elections, will, we trust, have some good effect; and even in England, now that new heads are gaining the ascendant, the utter absence of rowdyism and revolt, of great street placards, such as 'Vote for Tejedor or starve,' of recriminating addresses and passionate appeals to the multitude, will not escape the observation of the English thinkers now coming to the front, and who will not be slow to see that the River Plate is progressing so rapidly that its industries and commerce outweigh politics and secure to the country a place which only an external war can disturb.

WELCOME! QUARTETTE SOCIETY.

We unfeignedly welcome once again this popular concert-giving society to the front with another of its unrivalled public concerts, under the able direction of Signor Bassi. We regret the very short notice given for beating the drum to our musical circles to quarters; however, our readers have three clear days wherein to muster at the roll call.

We verily and unhesitatingly assert that our suburban residents from Belgrano, Flores, Lomas and other outlying skirts will find it to their account to get their places at this musical treat, if even they can only spare an hour from their retreat to hear the opening number, the unparalleled overture to Wagner's 'Tannhäuser.' We fancy even the great leader Bassi himself must stiffen his back-bone (if he can find it?) for this bold attack, above all things of the violins. The next too pieces are known to critics, belonging to the modern French school, and of frequent performance; the Minuet is highly pastoral and descriptive of country life. Of the four separate overtures to Fidelio written by its great author in 1805, the one (No. 3) promised for Thursday night is preferred, and developes a mighty conception of Beethoven, viz., an angel contemplating from his elevated sphere and nature the follies of human beings. The Impromtu of Schubert, already known to members, will be welcomed. The great concert piano and orchestral piece by Saint-Saens is, we believe, unknown here, and has a European reputation honorable to this rising author. Thomas's overture to 'Mignon' reproduces the melodies of this favorite opera, and is already known in this city. The 'Rueda de Omfala' is highly imaginative, the theme originating from a mythological scene wherein Hercules and the beautiful Queen of Lydia figure. The Revery by Schumann, when given at a previous concert, was much admired, and will be looked forward to with much interest. For the close of this concert, which, after all, is more the reproduction of the best things of previous meetings than the performance of 'novelties,' we have the great march of Torches No. 3, and already given with splendid effect and appreciation.

The Araucania's Mails

London, March 14th.

The splendid Pacific Steamer Araucania has brought the following dates—
London, 14th March; Paris, 15th; Madrid, 16th; Lisbon, 18th.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer began his financial statement last night with an apology for the inconvenience of having to submit it before the close of the financial year, though, he said, every endeavour had been made to secure accuracy. For the expiring year the revenue had been estimated at £33,550,000, and the expenditure £31,150,000, showing a surplus of £1,900,000, leaving out of consideration the charges for the war in South Africa, for which and other purposes he subsequently took a vote of credit for £3,000,000, raising the expenditure to £34,216,000, and involving a deficit of £1,161,000. The estimates of revenue had been disappointing, as, instead of £33,550,000, he could only take it as likely to yield £30,360,000, or a loss of £2,195,000, and making with the deficit on the supplementary estimates a total deficiency of £3,356,000. The further supplementary estimates he had presented this year would make the deficit appear something over £5,000,000, but all the money so voted had not been spent. The cost of the Zulu war had been £5,138,000, and there was still unspent £178,000. The result was that the total of the supplementary estimates was £1,783,000, whilst the total of the savings was $1,817,000, so that the savings more than covered the excess. This reduced the deficit to £3,315,000. The expenditure of the coming year was estimated at £31,483,000, an excess of £333,000 on the present year; and the revenue for 1880-1 was estimated at £31,563,000, or an increase of £700,000, leaving a surplus of £74,000 of revenue over expenditure. By the Probate and Administrative Duties Bill, which it is intended to embody with the budget bill in committee, an increased revenue of £700,000 is expected, bringing up the so-called surplus to £774,000. The Chancellor also intimated that an alteration in the law is proposed, in order to bring the Civil Service Stores under the operation of the income tax. The right honourable gentleman proceeded to point out that the net increase in the funded and unfunded debt was £6,000,000, and he proposed to take exchequer bonds of that amount and provide for its extinction by the creation of annuities terminable in 1885. There would thus be an estimated surplus of £184,000. No taxes are repealed, nor new ones imposed.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer's address to the electors of North Devon was issued last evening. The right hon. gentleman states that the Parliament has, throughout a period of no common difficulty and anxiety, upheld the honour of the country, and has vindicated its claim to its proper rank and influence amongst the nations of the world; it has laboured to avert war, to limit its range, and to prevent menacing complications; it has proclaimed the national determination to maintain our Colonial and Indian Empire; it has promoted measures for the advancement of the true interests of Ireland, while it has resisted proposals tending to weaken or dissolve the ties which bind together the great members of the United Kingdom; in its domestic legislation it has aimed at the general good of the community. The Chancellor of the Exchequer complains that the opponents of the Government have put forth extraordinary misrepresentations of financial facts; and he states that the taxation of the country is lighter than in almost any year previous to the accession of the present Government to power, while the National Debt stands at £18,000,000 below the sum at which the Government found it.

Lord Hartington has issued his address to the electors of North-east Lancashire. He asks them to give a proof of the confidence he believes they feel in the principles of the party to which he belongs. Referring to Lord Beaconsfield's letter, the Marquis disputes the statements contained in it in reference to the integrity of the Empire and the policy of decomposition as applied to our Colonies. With regard to Home Rule, his Lordship believes the demand for it impracticable, and says he has opposed it and shall continue to do so. He states that the Liberal party co-operate with the Government on Irish University Education, but considers that much remains to be done for Ireland. Referring to the Premier's remarks about the peace of Europe, Lord Hartington observes that Ministers did not prevent, even if their policy did not cause, a war in the East of Europe, and that the ascendancy of England has been claimed in circular but surrendered in secret Conventions. After a retrospect of Ministerial policy as to foreign affairs, his Lordship claims for the Liberal party that they have always desired to maintain the just influence of England in the councils of Europe, and asserts that the domestic consequence of the policy of the Government has been stagnation in internal reforms and financial confusion. In conclusion, his Lordship claims support for the Liberal party on the ground that, while they will uphold the power of the Empire, they will engage in no policy of disturbance or uncalled-for annexation.

There is no reason why the new Parliament should not meet before the first week in May. It might meet in the third week in April. The writs will be out in Passion Week. The elections will be over a fortnight later. The newly-elected members may easily be in town at the end of the second week in April and there will then be time to arrange some legislation before Whitsuntide.

The return issued by the emigration authorities in Liverpool for the month of February shows a large increase in the number of emigrants from this port, both in comparison with the departures last month and in the corresponding period of last year. During the month of February, 5,954 emigrants sailed from the Mersey, of whom 3,369 were English, 41 Scotch, 936 Irish, 1,426 foreign, and the nationality of 132 was not given. The destination of the great majority was the United States. The returns present an increase of 3,001 compared with the emigration in February, 1879, and are 1,607 more than the number who left the Mersey in January last.

The half-yearly general court of the proprietors of the Bank of England was held yesterday, when the net profits for the half-year ended the 29th February last were stated at £631,714 14s. 4d., making the amount of the 'rest' on that day £3,703,332 3s. 7d., and that after providing a dividend of £4 15s. per cent, the 'rest' would be £3,012035 3s. 7d. The Governor, in reply to the remarks of one of the proprietors respecting the recent forgeries, stated that the Bank directors had now, they thought, secured a cheque that would baffle all forgeries in future, and that it would be ready for use within the next few days.

The applications for shares in the Cunard Steamship Company have been so numerous and for such a large amount as must have surprised even the promoters of the company. The prospectus of the new company was issued on Saturday, when 66,000 shares were offered for subscription. On Monday the applications were considerably more than the capital offered, and on Tuesday the subscription-list had to be closed, the amount at that time offered representing a capital of four-and-a-half millions, or fully three times the amount offered for subscription. The list had consequently to be closed at once, and the directors will experience some difficulty in making the allotment among so many applicants.

The Chronicle Berlin correspondent telegraphs under all reserve a statement that, owing to the Hartmann incident, Prince Orloff, Russian Ambassador to Paris, will resign office and quit Paris for good.

The Telegraph St. Petersburg correspondent says the authorities are alarmed for the safety of the State Bank, and precautions are taken. The question, he adds, is much discussed. What will be the attitude of England when, as is sure to occur, the British Government is called upon to surrender some one or other of the numerous Russian malcontents now hiding in London? The Russian Foreign-office is endeavouring to arrive at some understanding on the subject. The correspondent adds:—It seems absolutely certain that Russian efforts in Central Asia will during the approaching season be concentrated in the Oxus.

The Daily News St. Petersburg correspondent states that the accounts of arrest of officials there are pure inventions, and the story of five hundred arrests belongs to the same category. General Melikoff (the correspondent adds) is convinced that mere repressive measures are insufficient. He is anxious to remove the sources of evil, foremost among which is the system of arrests and long imprisonments without trial.

A little uneasiness has been occasioned in some quarters in Austria by the report that Italy was massing troops on the frontier in view, it was thought, of the 'irredenta' movement. Reassurances are, however, given by the Italian journal Militaire, which states that the only troops sent frontierwards are those which take up their winter quarters in that district. Signor Marselli, speaking in the Italian Chamber of Deputies yesterday, vigorously condemned the 'irredenta' movement; and while admitting imperfections of the frontier, declared that the friendship of Austria was of far greater value than a rectification of the boundary, for friendly relations with the Austro-Hungarian monarchy were of the very greatest importance, and to compromise them would be a crime.

A terrible story of privation and danger has been revealed by the arrival at New York of two seamen who in July last essayed on the venturesome attempt to sail from Boston to Melbourne. The names of the men are Herbert F. Burrill of Falmouth (Cape Cod), and Andrew Coon, of Nantucket. They were landed at New York by the City of Para (s), who picked them up at Bahia. It is stated that Burrill who had been almost from childhood a seaman, had read with lively interest the accounts of voyages in small boats on the Atlantic, and from these he conceived the notion of making a voyage longer than had yet been accomplished by any other person, and in a smaller boat than had yet essayed ocean navigation. Accordingly, he built a tiny craft of a ton and a half burthen, fore-and-aft rigged, and changeable at pleasure from schooner to sloop, and on the 9th of July set sail from Boston with the intention of reaching Melbourne. He named his boat the Golden Gate, and engaged the man Coon to accompany him. He calculated upon reaching Melbourne before the close of the Exhibition in that city, and thus being able to make money by showing his boat, Provisions and water were taken on board the Golden Gate at Boston for four months' voyage. The craft was decked over the forecastle, and the bedding was stowed on the provisions and water-tanks in the forecastle. The bed was for only one man, as there were only two on board, one of whom would be occupied in the navigation. All appears to have gone well for about two months, for on the 58th day out the Golden Gate reached San Jago (Cape de Verde Islands), where she was repaired. Fresh provisions were taken on board, and on the 17th of September the little craft set sail for the African coast. A succession of storms was encountered, however, and the provisions, having got wet, commenced to ferment and burst the tins in which they were stored. Most of them were thrown overboard. On the 11th of December it became evident that what was left of the provisions would not last until the African coast was made, and the Golden Gate was then headed for the nearest land, and which was the Island of St. Helena; but light winds and a strong sea carried her leeward, and Burrill was obliged to shape a course for South America. When 600 miles from Brazil, the provisions gave out, and for 25 days Burrill and his companion are reported to have subsisted on water and cocoa. Their strength failed day by day for a fortnight, and when about a week's sail from Bahia they were in such an exhausted condition as to be unable to stand for the short time necessary to readjust their nautical instruements and to take observations, and they afterwards sailed by dead reckoning. At length, famishing, and barely able to steer their cockle-shell, the two adventurous Mariners ran into a small creek about 20 miles from Bahia, where they dropped anchor. There was a native settlement in the place, which is named Torrey, and the inhabitants took them ashore and treated them with such kindness that they recovered strength. They were afterwards sent by a coaster to Bahia and placed on board the City of Para, their boat being also taken on board. Burrill is 34 years old, and Coon 28.

LONDON LETTER.

Universal interest was felt in the Budget, and hence a house larger than anyone expected turned up. The galleries, too, were crowded, a number of peers and judges being present. As usual on these occasions the preliminary business stopped the way for some time. Very few Irish members were, however, present. Mr Finigan, in putting an interrogation on behalf of his hon. friend the member for Cavan, explained that Mr Biggar was absent because 'he was looking after the Government in Ulster.' A trifle like this is worth recording, because it shows how desperately the Irish Roman Catholic party intends to work during the general election for the Liberals.

The two front benches were crowded, and so were the Conservative benches, but there was a very large patch of emptiness in the space to the left of the Speaker. It was caused by the absence of the Irish members, and their disappearance enabled us to judge at a glance of the significant proportion which Home Rulers form of the Liberal party. Mr Gladstone was in his place, looking very pale and anxious; while his person was adorned with a beautiful rose. Sir W. Harcourt was not present, and Mr Bright did not turn up until after the Budget. All the other leaders of the Opposition were, however, in their seats, and a more anxious-looking range of men could not be imagined.

A storm in a teapot was created by Mr Mundella. It had reference to a return of the cost of bringing Indian troops to Malta and taking them back again. He had not got the return, and he wanted it; and Colonel Stanley explained that there had been some delay, and if there was any blame in the matter he was alone responsible. This would not satisfy Mr Mundella, because Mr Mundella wants to go down to Sheffield with a big story about nothing. Of course it is absurd to suppose that the Government are keeping the return back; but this is the insinuation of Mr Mundella, and the insinuation means that Col. Stanley and Mr Stanhope told deliberate falsehoods. How chivalrously your advanced Liberal fights! No wonder he is enamoured of Russia.

Sir Stafford Northcote rose at ten minutes to six o'clock, as gay as a lark, amid the cheers of the Tories. His statement lasted an hour and ten minutes, and substantially verifies my forecast of last night, although the surplus is considerably less than I anticipated. There is a surplus, and that is a great fact. A surplus at the end of four bad harvests and after a long commercial depression! True it is only £184,000 but it will do, and in the event of a good harvest this year, combined with a continuance of improved trade, there may next year be a surplus of two or three millions. No new taxes were to be imposed. The Tories cheered and the Liberals looked unutterably miserable. 'The statement is,' said the Chancellor, 'a complicated one.' Loud cheers of an ironical nature burst from the Opposition. 'But I have endeavoured to make it as clear as possible to the house,' modestly pleaded the Chancellor, and the Tories cheered, which was renewed when the right hon. gentleman concluded by saying that he placed the estimates with confidence before the house.

Up jumped Mr Gladstone, and the Radicals below the gangway—not, mind, the moderate Whigs and Liberals behind the front bench—cheered vociferously. The other evening they could not muster a demonstration of the humblest description on behalf of the Marquis of Hartington. Everyone expected a violent and passionate attack on the Exchequer, but it came not. Mr Gladstone was as mild as milk. He absolutely congratulated the Chancellor of the Exchequer on 'the clearness and accuracy' of his statement, which the Radicals five minutes before had doubted! It was not his intention to make any remarks this evening, but he hinted that probably he would do so on Monday. The house emptied, and remained empty all night.

The Budget has improved the position of the Conservatives before the country to such an extent that there is great danger of overconfidence on their part. On the other hand the depression of the Liberals is almost painful.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The first news yesterday was our telegram from London announcing that the General Elections in Great Britain and Ireland have closed with a majority for the Liberals of 60. This is as ample a working majority as any averagely popular Minister need wish for. The questions now are: Will Lord Beaconsfield resign at once or wait to be turned out? And who is to be the new Liberal Premier? According to precedent Her Majesty ought to send for Lord Hartington. When the Liberals get seated in their old places some important domestic legislation may be expected, and it will be an agreeable change from the 'spirited foreign policy' news which has formed the burden of every mail from Europe for years past. If there be a war in Europe this or next year, England is more likely to keep out of it under a Liberal than under a Conservative Government. At the same time, the Liberals will have to mend their hand in the foreign policy way; any repetition of the tame-cat deference to foreign Powers which had so large a share in the fall of the Liberals before, would inevitably upset their coach again. John Bull has had more than enough of that sort of thing.

The elections on Sunday passed off as peaceably as a meeting of the Literary Society or the Independent Order of Oddfellows. Nothing is changed. Buenos Ayres and Corrientes voted one way, and the rest of the provinces the other, so Congress will eventually have to decide the matter. It is to be hoped the whole republic will bow to its decision.

The list of horses to be exhibited at the approaching Show of the Rural Society shows what an immense stride this country has made in horse-breeding. There are 111 splendid horses to be exhibited. We will give their names etc. to-morrow.

The Chilian papers express a nervous feeling as to whether their supply of the raw material for 'bifes' and sirloins from the Argentine Republic will be up to the mark of their appetite. It appears that the live cattle export from this country to Chile has fallen from 70,000 per annum to 20,000. It will be a case of 'toujours' mutton chop with the poor Chilians this year.

The Rev. James Smith will preach on Sunday next, at noon, at the Cabaña, district of Cañuelas. There will be no morning or evening service at the Scotch Church, but Sunday School as usual at 1 o'clock.

Another man wanted, to claim a fortune. The lucky person is Mr John McTavish, son of a Scotch clergyman living near Glasgow; his sister died lately and left him some money. When last hear of, in 1874, Mr. McTavish was residing on the Madariaga Estancia, Dolores, and his town address was 'care of Messrs. Wm. Barry & Co., 161 Calle Potosi.' A Mr. Fleming was living at the time on the same estancia. Anyone knowing of his whereabouts, or of his death, is respectfully requested to communicate with Messrs Proudfoot, Hall and Co., Montevideo. In spite of the Glasgow Bank smash, there appear to be a good many fortunes looking out for owners now in Bonnie Scotland. Only a month ago we had the pleasure of aiding in the discovery of the heiress to a 'wee bit' of money in Aberdeen. Standard luck, clearly.

We had a letter yesterday from a Suipacha subscriber who appears to be suffering from 'ennui' and sheep on-the-brain, a not uncommon disease in rural parts. He says—"The season here has been very good: sheep and lambs doing well and grass abundant. Camp life here is so [we cannot make out whether the next word is uniformly or infernally, but select the politer of the two] uniformly dull that I have absolutely nothing to say. One day is so much like another that it would tax the pen and brains of a newspaper editor to supply his readers with variety.' Now and then, in town as well as the camp, the pen and brains in question have to pay a heavy tax of this description. It would be a help if some one were to start as 'inventor of awful murders,' shocking tragedies' and 'terrible conflagrations' for the newspapers. An enterprising gentleman in this walk of life recently got 'six months' at Bow Street, or from a Paris magistrate, we forget which; but Buenos Aires magistrates might fairly be expected to be more indulgent to energy out-at-elbows.

Dr. Zeb has kindly sent us the answer to the Latin puzzle he propounded last week—'I am a woman about to sail into Spain to observe the nature of vines.' This is identical with the second answer we received on Saturday.

The boilers of all the locomotives on the Tucuman Railway are said to be in a very bad state, and, of course, our native colleagues declare that it is all Count Tellener's fault. If any thing serious were to happen the moon, doubtless the same cause would be assigned for it in the same quarter.

There will be another colour-blessing affair at the Cathedral this week, the 1st Light Dragoons being the regiment, and the President of the Republic the 'padrino.'

The latest news from the West Coast is that the Chilians are marching on Tacna and intend to bombard Callao. The latter is a stiffish job at which the 'English of South America' may burn their fingers, or they may not.

There are over 30 men of infamous calling under arrest for the terrible murder in the Anchorena Hotel, but as yet the actual criminal has not been picked out.

We understand that our distinguished quondam colleague Mr. Santiago Estrada, has almost completed an interesting essay entitled 'Considerations on the Work of Expiation' which the Rev. Kenelm Vaughan has in hands. On Thursday the manuscript will be in the hands of Mr Coni, the well known printer, and the book will be richly embellished with illustrations, including the photographs of the founders, several of whom are of the first families in this city.

Mr. J T Stant, the well-known engineer, will leave to-morrow for Skyring Water, Straits of Magellan, where he has been appointed Manager of the Martha Coal Mine, about which we lately gave some particulars. Mr. S. goes down in the owners' steamer Puerto de Buenos Ayres, specially bought by them for the service of the mine. We wish Mr. Stant every success, and it he should stumble over any gold or other valuable commodity in his search after 'black diamonds,' we trust he will send the first nugget or specimen to the Standard museum, which at present is at rather a low ebb.

An idiot who bought a gold watch on Friday from an 'individuo' in the street, for $4,500 m/c, on taking it to a watch-maker found to his horror that it was made of brass. It is easier to imagine than to describe the victim's feelings, so we wont attempt the latter task.

The Revista Medica again soundly condemns the Health authorities and declares that the 'visits' to the vessels daily arriving from Brazil are a mere farce. In spite of the wretched sanitary service of the city, however, the public health is good.

There are very few people here or elsewhere who are enthusiastic enough in the cause of education to hand over a magnificent estancia house and all its furniture for a public school, besides paying the pedagogue. Mr. Carlos Reyles, the well known estanciero of Durazno, B.O. has, however, recently done this and more, for he has given a second estancia house, in Tacuarembo, for the same purpose. The Commissioners of Public Education intend to call the new schools after him, and some of them threaten to gold-medal him: a sorry return for such public spirit. A gold medal in these regions is now synonymous with a silver toothpick in England, and is not half so useful.

The owners of exchange offices have suddenly taken a strong aversion to lottery gambling. The police lately called on most of them, requesting the payment of a smart fine, as some 'good natured friends' had denounced them as Lottery agents. The whole 'gremio' protested with upturned eyes against this aspersion on their character and asseverated that they would not sell a lottery ticket for any consideration, as the Law, (for which all classes in this country have such a profound respect,) forbids it. The police retired moodily with a deeply rooted conviction that the task of 'catching a weazle asleep' is a more difficult one than is generally supposed, If the Municipality had as much sense in its head as it has little cash in its coffers, it would try and have the Buenos Ayres Lottery re-established, and so pocket for the charitable institutions of the city all the money that now goes to Montevideo and Uruguay for their lotteries.

TIME IS MONEY.

Hotel de Provence, April 11.

To the Editor of the Standard,

Sir,

On Thursday last I inquired at the Nocetti Agency, 116 Reconquista, when one of their steamers would start for Asuncion, Paraguay. I was answered by the office keeper that the Rio Parana would leave on Sunday. As I was told that the river steamers are not much to be relied upon for punctuality, I begged a highly esteemed English friend of mine to send to the office and ascertain the positive day of departure. My friend's messenger returned with the assurance that the steamer would infallibly start on the 11th. On that same day (Friday) I went to buy the ticket, and the clerk who took my money again assured me that the steamer would certainly leave to-day at 10 a.m. I went, therefore, this morning with my servant and luggage to the Boca, and was told on board that the vessel would only start on Tuesday.

As the loss of two days is a matter of great importance to me I must, with great regret, give up my Paraguayan trip. Meanwhile, Sir, although this is a free country, I very much doubt whether a steam navigation company be at liberty to dispose of my time as they do of theirs, and I think it desirable that the public should know how travelling strangers are dealt with at 116 Reconquista.

I have the honour to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
A. Gallenga.

The week has opened with a delining gold market; the long looked for elections have come and are over without any greater noise than what the bulletin boys made, and the intense excitement to which the country was such a prey for so many months has burst like a bubble. The better feeling in the market was noticeable even before the ring opened, and parties who were last week buying gold are now sellers. We heard of 150,000 pats bought and sold house to house to-day and without commis ion at 30.60.

Gold opened at 30.55 and dropped to 30.60, at which it closed; the price for the end of June is the same as cash, and this is significant. At afterhours a well known Argentine broker bought 150,000 for end of May, and his large purchases attracted notice, but all he asked for he got, as the market current is too strong for one buyer.

To-morrow (Tuesday) Mr Zorilla, our popular Minister of Interior, starts for Tucuman to inaugurate the extension for which the materials have already been contracted for in Francs. Mr Gallenga, the talented Times correspondent, also Mr John Samson of Glasgow and Mr Younger and a few others go, but no special invitation cards were given.

Cedulas show no alteration and rule firm at 85½, but Nat. Bank Shares are much offered, and the belief is that they are too much held on 'Change amongst brokers.

The Araucania's mails were delivered to-day and are very important. Mr J Getting, we note, has returned in this steamer; all the passengers are in quarantine on Flores Island. The Araucania has brought some French gold to Tornquist and some 5000 pats gold to others; also large consignment of coffee from Rio.

The R.M.S. Elbe left San Vicente on 10th inst, is due at Montevideo on 24th. She has on board the Zarsuela Co. This magnificent steamer is postd to leave here direct for Europe on 7th May. She will take some of the leading families of this city, amongst them, Mr M Guerrica and family, Mr Machain and family, Mr Alex. Maderna and family, Mr Williamson and family, the family of Mr John Drysdale, Drs Marenco, Lucio V Lopez, and Moreno, the Livingstons of the River Plate.

Telegrams were sent to Europe to-day announcing the elections over, and without any disturbance; the result of the elections wired was:—Tories won in Buenos Aires, Liberals in provinces; at least this is the pith of one of the despatches gone to Europe.

Thanks to the great attention of a friend we held a telegram from London dated yesterday which gave the final results of the general elections in the United Kingdom, being a majority of 60 in favor of the Liberals, which was about what was generally expected.

Telegrams received to-day announce the safe arrival in Havre of the steamer Pampa. Messrs Cadmus, Christophersen and others on board.

We received to-day the American mails, also Rio mails, and numerous brokers' circulars which we are compelled to hold over.

We are happy to say that latest advices from Paraguay state that so far from President Bareiro refusing to treat with Mr Milner, the special commissioner sent out by the council of foreign bondholders, negotiations are proceeding satisfactorily and will probably terminate in an arrangement mutually advantageous. They have had very heavy rains in Asuncion. Mr Horrocks has presented a solicitud in the name of an English Company for a Bank concession, which is well received and likely to be granted; it is now before the Chambers.

Since last Thursday Flores has been supplied with gas from Belgrano, Mr Shaw having connected the main with the Santa Fe road. Mr Woodgate's Co., the Argentine, has now nothing further to do with supplying Flores, and we must say that whilst he lighted the road the village of the plain was well served, and we hope Mr Shaw will keep up as good lights.

The sale of 500 fan. of wheat, at Costa, regular, at $245, by De Vicenzi, is reported.

At the wool markets this morning higher prices than ever paid; the wool in the South Market was sold at 165, and a very fine lot of Magdalena wool is expected in to-morrow.

The reports received from New York by the mail give the pine shipments for the month at 2 millions feet and about 1½ million loading.

Exchange could not rule quieter, and very little; doing the rates are about the same with an upward tendency.

Freights show no alteration. The Dago has taken about 3,000 bales, and brokers report more cargo offering and bales coming forward very fast.

Mr H Newton, of Carmelo, who has arrived, reports camps in the Banda Oriental very good and sheepfarmers doing very well.

The San Luis Railway inauguration took place on Saturday, but seems to have been a slow affair enough, not even a telegram.

Charter—Italian barque Linda to load tallow at Macoreta's saladero for Channel and orders at 25s and 5 o/o.

The mails have brought advices of the death of Mr Stewart Brown of the great banking house of Brown Bros. & Co., which was started in the last century by an Irish linen merchant who settled in Baltimore, and the following sketch respecting this great banking house we cut from the Times, as it will doubtless interest many of our readers:—

"As his sons became of age they were taken into their father's business, and the firm was changed to Alexander Brown & Sons. In order to extend their business, branch houses were established. William Brown, the eldest son went to Liverpool in 1809, and attained great success there. Soon afterwards the next two sons, George and John, established houses in Philadelphia and Boston. James, who died in November, 1877, went to New York to establish the present house in that city. Although at first the linen business was continued, the intention from the start was to change it to the present system of banking. This occurred about 1827. From the time the house was established it has been one of the most prominent firms of New York. During the panic of 1837 the firm held American bills for a very large amount. This amount included £300,000 of protested paper, and engagements were to be met in England amounting to nearly $10,000,000. The resources of the firm were largely invested in American securities, which were not available at that time. This rendered it almost impossible to draw bills or remit specie to England while a panic prevailed in Europe as well as in the U. States. At this crisis the English branch of the firm succeeded in securing a loan from the Bank of England sufficient to meet all engagements in the U. States. Securities to the amount of $25,000,000 were deposited. In six months the whole sum was returned to the Bank of England."

It appears from Messrs Wiesner & Chapeaurouge's report that last week several shipments of Banda Oriental wheat arrived at this market and were sold at 240 and 245 dollars per fanega of 9 arrobas. Some of these lots were very good and others inferior. The arrival of wheat by the railways has fallen off almost to nothing, and the same may be said about Rosario and Sta. Fe, thus the only wheats that command interest and look upwards are from the Coast. Respecting the 5,000 fanegas from Bordeaux and which is on the way out, efforts are being made to get it in free of duty, under the head of seed wheat, but it is believed they will not succeed.

The Spanish schooner Hortensia put back to Rio Janeiro on the 28th March in distress for want of ballast, from which port she had sailed on the 18th of March for Buenos Aires; on the 1st of April she renewed her voyage.

The German barque Wilhelmine was lost on the 10th March on the coast of Marseilles bay. The Captain and crew were saved, but the cargo she took in at Rio was lost.

Captain Snow, of the American barque Almiro Robinson, arrived at Rio, states that on 28th March in Lat. 31.21 and Long. 9.36 he spoke the American barque Jammath from Swansea for Valparaiso, 50 days out, all well on board.

The barque Edmund Richardson from Rosario arrived at Rio in 25 days. The Gomez de Castro from Fray Bentos in 27 days. The Oceania from Gualeguay in 23 days. The Coriolano from Paysandu in 22 days, and the Pfeil from Gualeguaychu in 21 days.

Concerning the flour imported from Brazil there seems to have been more noise made about it than it deserved; the consignee has not asked from its admission free of duty, and its quality is not bad, the only difference between it and new flour is its age, being six months made.

The arrivals of maize in the market are very large, the crop seems to have been a splendid one, but as yet no important transactions are reported, $50 fanega is the price for the new maize.

The sale of a lot of wool in the South Market at $168 the arr. is reported. As we before stated, every lot of wool now selling has a history of its own; this wool was bought outside a few months ago at 100 dolls. the arr. the lot was about 2500 arr. and the purchaser for want of carts could not get the wool in sooner; he made 68 dols. the arr. by the delay. From the far South we hear there is much wool yet to come to market, luckily for the farmers down there the bullocks were so thin that there was no getting a troop of carts for love or money, and the great facilities which the farmers in the North enjoyed in the way of carts and railways have robbed them of millions and millions. An arr. of fair mestizo wool is worth to-day in either plaza more then a pound sterling; the oldest sheepfarmers in the River Plate admit that they never before heard of such prices, and we hear that Mr Frias has rented a square league of land in the partido of Mercedes for 200,000 doll. per annum; the rent of that land beats the price of the wool.

A 5 leguas del Pergamino y 6 de Rojas
En nuestra casa San Martin 51.

Base de venta 400,000 ps. legua

El Viernes 14 de Abril, a las 4 de la tarde rocederemos a la venta de 2 leguas y 689 mls de legua de campo superior, situado en el partido de Rojas, conocido bajo el nombre de Las 3 Flores.

Este campo, perfectamente situado, quedando a 6 leguas del pueblo de Rojas y a 5 del pueblo de Pergamino, es de inmensa porvenir, pues el ferro carril al Pergamino quedara terminado a fines de este año.

Esta magnifica estancia tiene todo su frente al rio de Rojas y linda con los antiguos campos de Llavallol, hoy de E. Casey, con el ejido del pueblo de Colon, Dr M Porcel de Peralta, con D Octavio de la Barra y otros, y por el otro costado con D Adolfo Sierra y Unzue. Esta señalado en el registro grafico con el nombre de Indalecio Sario.

Las condiciones generales de este campo son superiores por sus buenos partes, pues es aparente no solo para vacas sino que admite bien un numero regular de ovejas.

La base fijada como base de venta es infima en relacion a la calidad del campo, su posicion, sus condiciones ventajosas y de los precios obtenidos por campos inmediatos al que ofrecemos.

Para aquellos que empleen capitales en campos les recordaremos la reciente venta de tierras publicas, unas en el partido de Tres Arroyos, inmediato al arroyo Pillanuico Grande por el precio de $220,000 legua, y otra en el partido de Bolivar a $40,000 id. Esto es exacto ademas es menester tener presente la diferencia de inmediacion con centros importantes.

Por planos y datos sobre estos campos a nuestra casa San Martin 51.

Las personas de la campaña pueden solicitarlo por carta y sera inmediatamente remitida.
